How to Use the Real Talk Tools

The Real Talk Tools Starter Pack is designed to give you simple, practical ways to slow down, check in with yourself, and reconnect with what's true, without pressure, perfection, or pretending. You don't need to use every page or follow a strict order. Start with the tool that fits where you are today: a quick check-in, a short reflection, or a one-sentence prayer. These sheets are meant to be printed and used again and again, so you can treat them like a daily or weekly check-in, something you come back to regularly as life changes.

The Scripture Cards use the same verses that appear throughout Real Talk: Becoming Who God Made You to Be. You can print the cards on cardstock, cut them out and use them as scripture cards, or trim them and place them on index cards. Keep one verse where you'll actually see it, like your desk, backpack, nightstand, car, or inside your workbook, and focus on one card at a time.
